| | | Our Global Regulatory Affairs department manages our product quality and safety approach and ensures that we are meeting all requirements of the many global regions where we operate. We monitor regulatory changes and work with our customers on issues that impact their products. Across our operations, more than 300 individuals directly support our product quality safety systems. However, we believe that product quality and safety are the responsibility of all of our employees. Continuous improvement of our processes is central to our culture, and the focus of every business activity, from creative design through procurement, manufacturing through customer service. Every IFF fragrance and flavor facility incorporates the necessary requirements of a number of internationally recognized quality systems, including: ISO 9001 (2000), the international standard for quality management The Hazard Analysis Critical Control Point system, which provides a systematic approach to safety management Good Manufacturing Practices |

|--------------------------|--|--|--|
| PR5 | Practices related to customer satisfaction, including results of surveys measuring customer satisfaction. | Our products are developed solely for the business-to-business market. Therefore, we do not have a system in place to measure satisfaction of the end consumer. However, we do have a robust system for measuring on-time performance (OTP) for all IFF ship- ping locations. If IFF does not meet the customer's first requested ship date, it is a penalty against the plant. OTP is a standard metric that is monitored daily by all facilities. | |
| | | Our Consumer Insights programs assess consumer preferences and tastes. We use our consumer data to create fragrances and flavors that customers love, as well as to better understand the emotional connec- tions between fragrances and flavors and consumers. We conduct consumer research globally. Our in-depth studies are used to both understand trends across countries and give us country-specific understanding. | |
| Marketing communications | | | |
| PR6 | Programs for adherence to laws, standards, and voluntary codes related to marketing communications, including advertising, promotion, and sponsorship. | We do not market nor advertise our products to consumers.
